

ASSISTANCE FOR SURVIVORS OF TRAFFICKING

Victims of human trafficking will have many needs after they escape or are rescued from the trafficking situation.

PHYSICAL NEEDS

- Food and water
- Shelter
- Health
 - Gynecology
 - Medications
 - Dental Hygiene
- Clothing
- Hygiene items
- Immigration Services
- Legal Services
 - Expungement

PSYCHOLOGICAL NEEDS

- Mental Health/Counseling
 - Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder
 - Anxiety
 - Depression
- Social support
- Sense of security/safety
- Substance abuse treatment

ALTHOUGH THE SURVIVOR SHOULD NOT BE RUSHED INTO AFTERCARE, IT IS IMPORTANT TO KNOW THE SERVICES AVAILABLE IN YOUR AREA FOR WHEN THE SURVIVOR IS READY.

WHERE TO FIND RESOURCES

- Local non-profits
- Social service providers
- Human trafficking coalitions
- Federal agencies
- State agencies

For a list of government agencies that offer assistance, check out the Resources section of the online training.
