

LABOR TRAFFICKING RISK FACTORS

INDIVIDUAL RISK FACTORS

Individuals are at a heightened risk for labor trafficking if they:

- Are male
- Are an illegal or legal immigrant
- Are employed in a marginalized or unregulated workforce
- Have previously been affected by abuse or violence

SECTORS WHERE LABOR TRAFFICKING IS COMMON

- Construction
- Janitorial Services
- Strip Clubs, Massage Parlors
- Assisted Living Facilities
- Factories
- Agriculture
- Hospitality
- Restaurants
- Private Residences

IMPACT ON VICTIM

- Feelings of isolation
- Great need for physical security and having their basic needs met

'TWO DOZEN ORLANDO CHILDREN WERE CRAMMED INTO THE BACK OF AN OLDER MODEL CHEVROLET WORK VAN, DRIVEN TO PALM BAY ON FRIDAY AND DROPPED OFF TO SPEND MORE THAN 10 HOURS SELLING CHEAP ITEMS DOOR-TO-DOOR, PALM BAY POLICE SAID. IF THEY HAD TO USE THE BATHROOM, THEY WERE TOLD TO USE THE BUSHES. IF THEY WERE THIRSTY, TO ASK RESIDENTS FOR WATER, POLICE SAID.'

Retrieved from
<http://www.floridatoday.com/story/news/local/2013/10/29/police-say-24-children-rescued-from-human-trafficking-scheme-two/77199404>